

Beliné

Deep in the pristine mountain forests of Slovenia, the silver fir tree thrives untouched, a symbol of strength and resilience. For thousands of years, this regal tree has flourished in perfect balance with nature, enduring extreme conditions with remarkable longevity. Its time-tested resilience comes from its branches, which are naturally rich in polyphenols – potent plant compounds known for their antioxidant and revitalizing properties.

Inspired by Nature. Perfected for Your Skin.

Experience the enduring resilience of the silver fir tree with NHT Global's Beliné, created to fight visible signs of aging. This velvety day cream is powered by Belinal, a rare extract of silver fir branches sustainably sourced from the forests of Slovenia. Packed with over 36 potent polyphenols, Belinal* delivers triple action care for your skin – hydrating, renewing, and reducing the look of aging. Our 98% natural formula is further enriched with nourishing macadamia oil and shea butter to provide lasting moisture for a radiant, youthful glow.

Blending the wisdom of nature with the power of science, Beliné captures the extraordinary essence of the silver fir in your daily skincare ritual – bringing you beauty as pure and timeless as the Slovenian forests.
